

Hargitt and Dimmitt Named Partners

We are pleased to announce that Lauren Dimmitt and Samantha Hargitt have been elected to the firm's partnership effective January 1, 2020. Get to know our new partners:

Samantha's practice is concentrated in the areas of commercial real estate development and finance and corporate law. She counsels real estate developers in the acquisition, development, financing, and disposition of multi-family, mixed-use and other commercial properties, and she has significant experience with urban infill and brownfield redevelopment projects, including through local public-private partnerships. Samantha also has experience with development transactions involving for-sale residential product such as condominiums and townhomes.

Lauren's practice focuses on personal injury defense, insurance coverage, and medical malpractice defense. She has represented individuals and businesses through all stages of litigation including discovery, mediation, motion practice, trial, and appeals. Lauren regularly appears in state and federal courts throughout Indiana and Kentucky. Lauren is also a registered domestic mediator in the State of Indiana and is passionate about helping families resolve conflicts outside the courtroom.

Congratulations Sam and Lauren!
