

Family Law

At Wooden McLaughlin, we understand that family is everything. When family law issues arise, we will protect your rights and the rights of your family. Our attorneys are advocates who will listen and respond to your individual needs. Every family is different and those differences are important to resolve your issues. Our personal approach guides you through what may be among your most challenging situations. Availability is a hallmark of our representation. We are here when you need us.

We represent clients in family law matters such as:

- Divorce and legal separation
- Paternity actions
- Child custody and parenting time
- Parenting coordinators
- Child support
- Post-divorce modifications
- Family mediation
- Pre- and post-nuptial agreements
- Grandparent visitation
- Emancipation
- Guardianship
- Name change
- Protective orders

Key Contacts

- Lauren E. Dimmitt